

Craft Market Tour

Central Market, Zone 1

The central market of zone 1 of Guatemala is located next to the Central Park, a few minutes walk from the National Palace or the Cathedral. You have to go down the street that leaves the central park on the side of the Cathedral, right next to it. Now the central market refers to the entire ultra-commercial area five blocks around, the stores sell everything, shoes, clothes, records, there are real stores, more street stalls, but the food, more than everything, is found in the market itself, which is in a basement.

You can buy fruit, vegetables and endless flowers and flower arrangements themselves, you can also find handicrafts, wooden objects, as well as candles and condiments for your meals.

Without overlooking its typical sweets, those sweets that allow you to learn a little about our tradition and allow you to go back in time to our childhood.

It is a fairly complete Market full of life and with a lot of history in our City. The Central Market is the heart of Guatemalan crafts, it has several places where Guatemalans and foreigners can buy products 100% made in Guatemala.
